RACING GOSSIP.

It will not be much of a surprise to see Barney Schreiber booking in his own magnetic way at the Indiana tracks before long. The sport at St. Louis is not what it should be. Bad handling of good material is the reason. The racing in Indiana is growing better every day and the growth will be sharper from now on. The management of a race track, the stalls of which shelter high-class horses, should cater to such turf tools. If its programme is badly made specials can be injected. As with the merchant so with the turfman. The $50,000 investment is entitled to earn five times as much as that of $10,000, supposing of course that stable nonsagacity doesn't handicap its own. The racing at St. Louis is too common for what equine goods the Fair Grounds has on hand. Unless the caterer changes his plans the meeting, which ought to be a superb one, will grade off and almost fail.

The leading winner among the Oakley owners up to the end of last week was Byron McClelland, who is holding his own. He has won some $15,000 including the Derby and Losantaville Stakes, with Prince Lief and Caesarian.

Will Wallace also has won two stakes—the Liberty and the Cincinnati Press—and these, with nine ordinary purses, swell the earnings of his string to $6,865. M. F. Dwyer is third on the list with $4,500 as his stable's earnings. Mr. Dwyer has won only one stake, the Sapphire, taken by Cleophus, but second and third moneys in the Derby amounted to $2,200, in addition to which he has won two purse races. J. M. Murphy comes next, Souffle's Oaks and her second to Ida Pickwick, netting the genial turf correspondent $4070. The Avondale Stable has one stake, the Memorial, won by Ida Pickwick on Decoration Day, and with one handicap, two other purse races and some seconds and thirds, the winnings of that string amount to $3,490. The five named have won all the stakes so far.

The others that have won as much as $1,000 with the number of races won by each, are as follows: Scoggan Bros., 4 races. $1,570; T. C. McDowell, 3. $1,230; Springhurst Stable, 4, $1,230; Baker & Gentry, 3, $1,200; W. H. Laudeman, 2, $1,040; Oakley Stable, 3. $1,040. A dozen others have secured between $500 and $1,000 each as follows: C. T. Patterson, $996; W. T. Woodard Jr., $930; C. J. Kelly, $810; Eastin & Larrabie, $780; E. F. McLean, $750; W. L. Simmons, $730; T. P. Hayes, $720; E. F. Elkins, $670; Waideck Stable, $670; E. Corrigan, $630; Ireland Bros., $540; D. R. Harmess. $530.

The Coney Island Jockey Club announces the dates set for the principal events at its meeting, as follows:

On Tuesday, June 23, the opening day, the Double Event, for 2-year-olds, with $5,000 added, and the Suburban, for all ages, with $7,500 added; Wednesday, June 24, the Daisy, for 2-year-olds, $1,500 added, and the Swift, for 3-year-olds, $2,000 added; Thursday, June 25, the Grass Inaugural, $1,500 added; Saturday, June 27, the Zephyr Stakes, for 2-year-olds, $2,000 added, and the Coney Island Handicap, with $1,500 added; Tuesday, June 30, the Spring, $2,000 added, and the Tidal, $6,500 added; Wednesday, July 1, the Surf, $2,000 added; Thursday, July 2, the June, $2,000 added, and the Spindrift, $2,000 added; Saturday, July 4, Great Trial, $20,000, and Sheepshead Bay Handicap, $1,500 added; Tuesday, July 7, the Pansy Stakes, $1,500 added; Wednesday, July 8, the Foam, $2,000 added: Thursday, July 9, the Vernal, $2,000 added, and the Long Island Handicap, $2,000 added; Saturday, July 11, the second part of the Double Event and the rich Realization Stakes, with $25,000 added money, will be decided.

The Horseman's turf dabbler, Annan—this or that, is the marvel of a class of cheap local turf critics. His latest slopover takes in everything equine and amid general blundering the badly abused sport of racing gets its share. Domino's 1894 Derby and Taral's instructions and riding are discussed like the ruralist discussed valor—by inflection. No intelligent man who saw Domino's race ever believed that Lakeland's instructions or Taral's ride cut any figure in the result. Wasn't it the time, 2:36 which is the record, and takes Boundless' 1893 performance within its arms. Didn't Rey el Santa Anita win by six lengths and couldn't he have made it ten lengths. Do the records show that Domino had any fancy for 1½ miles? The vanity of superficiality is marvelous at all times but most dangerous when it gets past the man who ought to know better and drives his way into print. The same shabby critic—for supericiality is shabbiness, or its literary equal, laziness—comment on Yo Tambein. In the past he declared her to have been the greatest of American mares—at the expense of Miss Woodford, Firenze, Los Angeles, et al. Of course that was an error. Now Allan, something opines that "Yo Tambien was always taken to the front and allowed to 'rate' along there-" Dear! Dear! What about the 1892 Garfield Park Derby, one of the mare's greatest races? Are the records awry? Or did she come from behind, and mow down Azra, Wadsworth, and the rest. Allan this and that tells us too that he had "exploited" the mare's powers at length and settled her turf standing. Exploited, forsooth! To what strange uses have our lexicons come, when achievements or doings are so demonstrated in a verbal way and the account charged against their editors and makers.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Chris. Smith's good mare Urania pulled up lame after her defeat last Monday at Oakley by Caesarian, and it is doubtful whether she will be able to start again very soon.

Charley Cougle is being congratulated all about for his purchase of Caesarian, On the heels of the bargain, Cougle about won him out over Demirep's win at Forsyth Wednesday. The clever fellow had a good bet on the filly at 4 to 1. Caesarian, by the way, cost McClelland $1,750 as a yearling. Eugene Leigh made him pay that price.

"Hops" Laudeman, who uses taste in naming his youngsters, took a peculiar way for choosing Orimar and applying it to the Sir Dixon—Prairie Queen colt, a half brother to Anna Mayes. Orimar, spelt backwards, is Ramiro, Evidently the stout spectacled and intelligent layer of the odds thinks pretty well of the son of Fonso.

T. P. Hayes will ship Rondo and the rest of his horses to Milwaukee next week.—Cincinnati Enquirer. Will he? Instead, he will come to Chicago. A special barn is being built for the Hayes lot at the Indiana tracks. The horses will naturally, however, fill their Milwaukee stake engagements and contend for the liberal bill of fare offered to horsemen by the Milwaukee management.

R. Williams has been engaged to ride Ornament in the $3,500 Championship Stakes at St. Louis Saturday. The race is at 5½ furlongs and will be a sharp test for the son of Order and Victorine. In it, he is likely to meet Parthemax, Altamax and Don Clarencio of the Burns & Waterhouse string, Scribe and Green Jacket of Pat Dunne's contingent, Bill McGuigan's Moncreith and Boanerges, the Ormonde—Kissing Crust colt Orestes and Naglee Burk's sister to Crescendo, Dolce. If, however, Ornament is the Ornament that raced before the cheap performance in the Kindergarten Stakes he should win.

GOOD RACING AT FORSYTH.

Fine weather favored Forsyth yesterday, and the track was fast. The attendance was up to the average, and the racing enjoyable, some of the finishes being exceptionally close. Only two favorites, Yours Truly in the two-year-old race, and Full Measure in the last event, rewarded the talent, but no long shots won. That good, but peculiar creature Constant captured the nine furlong race. Behind her, the performance of both Evanatus and Eloroy were worse than mediocre. Eloroy apparently did make an effort. but Evanatus took the longest route and never showed speed. He is a bad horse.

In one of the breakaways before the fifth race, May Galop and Virgie Dixon collided, and little Pete Clay was heavily thrown, but not hurt.

In the opening race Terragnes was favorite. Reveille, Terragnes and Tramp were in front all the way. In the stretch the favorite had a clear lead, but in a rattling finish Tramp won by a nose from Terragnes, with Reveille third, only the same distance back.

Yours Truly was the favorite for the two-year-old race. Siegfried made the running into the stretch where he tired and Yours Truly closed for the argument. In a pretty finish Hothersall landed the favorite by a short head, Murphy riding a powerful race on Seigfried.

There was an extraordinary plunge on Hartford Boy in the third race, but he was never prominent after the start. Miss Star made the running into the stretch, where she quit, and Revenue looked like winning, but Inspector Hunt came fast at the end and won easily.

Evanatus was a strong favorite in the mile and an eighth. Freddie L T and Constant raced in front all the way, the mare winning by half a length, with King Bors a good third.

In the fifth race Diggs opened favorite,but fell back to 3½ and 4 to 1, Virgie Dixon becoming first choice. Merry Monarch led for half a mile when he dropped back and Virgie Dixon and Glenoid went to the front. In the stretch Merry Monarch came again and beat Glenoid handily by a length. Old Glenoid never ran a better race, as he had 108 pounds with little Hothersall up, carrying some fifty pounds of dead weight.

Full Measure was favorite in the last race. She led all the way and won in a drive from Fritzie, who beat Helen Wren a short head for the place.

Charles Robinson, who has been keeping the jumper Ten-I-See for some time, says if his owner, J. Cremens, does not come for him he will be sold.

THE COMING HARNESS RACES.

The great and beneficial feature of the always high class harness meeting of the North Western Breeders Association at Washington Park will be the out of door horse shows of Saturday and Monday, June 28 and 29. At it the horses of various grades will be seen naturally and at their best. Chicago society will appear at its best on these days. The July 4 features are wound around the popular bicycle. The sextette race of that day is likely to be sensational, Thursday. July 2, John R. Gentry and Joe Patchen, the pacing stars, are to meet in a match of three in five heats. In addition to all these events, the best of the season's harness horses will be assembled in the purse and stake races of the Association.

Col. Hatch Going Again.

The Cincinnati electric light night track is on its last legs and Projector Hatch will have to try again. Attachments are all about it, The outfit has paid nobody and everybody is seeking their due.

LEATHER FORM'S DELAY.

Subscribers to Leather Form will get their books this week. The delay is caused by the work of perfecting its index, which will outclass anything in the index line ever published. To make amends for late delivery thirty blank pages will be bound in each book between the last form chart and index. This will strike all keepers of form as the proper thing. The book can be ordered through J. R. Hawley, of Cincinnati, T. B. Mulliken, Oakley Race Track, Jett Co., St. Louis, and W. W. Lyles, Windsor, Ont. and Detroit, Mich.
